Narberth Champions Start League Play-Offs Tomorrow

BY JOHN MULLIGAN

Narberth and three other Main Line League teams will begin Shaughnessy System eliminations tomorrow to crown a champion for 1938.

The locals clinched first playoff position over the holiday without lifting a bat. As such they rule as favorites to come out on top after two series of three and five games.

League warfare was brought to an official end on Labor Day when Narberth clinched the top rung because Gladwyne yielded to Manoa in a morning game. In order to tie the locals it was necessary for Gladwyne to win both of its games and Narberth to lose to Coatesville.

Final standings had Gladwyne in second place, Manoa in third, and Berwyn in fourth after a bitter scrap with Drexel Hill for the last berth.

Tomorrow Narberth will clash with Manoa on the community field. Sunday they will meet again at Manoa in the second of a three-game series. However, if it should rain tomorrow they will meet at Narberth Sunday.

Gladwyne will tangle with Berwyn in similar series at Berwyn tomorrow. The following day they are slated to clash at Gladwyne. Winners of the preliminary series then meet in a five-game playoff for the title.

Jack Jefferies, who is carrying on as manager in the absence of Gene Davis, saw his charges coast into the first place rating. They could have clinched it Saturday, but lost to Angora here by a 4-1 score. Walt Masters was the losing pitcher.

A day later, with another chance to settle the argument over first place, Narberth visited Ardmore and gave a terrible performance to lose out, 7-5. All the while Gladwyne was closing in, and the borough fans began to worry a bit. However, Manoa did Narberth the favor of ending the suspense, and with nothing to worry about Narberth went out Labor Day afternoon and trounced Coatesville's hopeless outfit 10-1.

The boys had no cause to cry over the Angora defeat. Begging pardon for a pun, Angora was the cats, at least was Pitcher Bernie Herman. He was so stingy with base hits that Narberth could get only three. Harry Fox, Buddy Walker and Roger Malseed were the orphan sticksmiths.

Misfortune dealt Narberth a cruel blow at Ardmore. Bud Clancy, star righthanded pitcher, twisted his knee badly, fielding a slow roller. He was taken to the Bryn Mawr Hospital for treatment. First reports had him lost for the rest of the season, but from a reliable source the writer has learned he may be in shape for the series.

Only bright spot in the Ardmore nightmare was a homer which Bill Caldwell poled after Tan Ralston singled in the second. Narberth played loose ball behind Clancy and went to pieces completely after he was hurt. Bill Reynolds replaced him. Four errors were charged against them and it's lucky a box score has no place for errors of omission.

By this time with no worries, Jefferies' defending champions slapped the heat to the Coates before a large holiday crowd. Al Herrmann worked steadily on the hill while Caldwell and Malseed poked three hits apiece and Walker, Fox and Herrmann shared second honors with two.

Narberth finished the regular schedule with a record of 21 victories and 7 setbacks.

In preparation for the championship series, Narberth's ball tossers held a two-hour workout last night on the community field.

After the practice they were supper guests of President Raymond A. Cabrey at his home. Later they attended the borough movies in a body and then held a meeting at the Cabrey residence.

Voters May

Register the End of September for Fall Election.

County Commissioners Fred C. Peters, Foster C. Hillegass and James W. Potter are making it convenient for unregistered local voters to enroll, by traveling this summer to various centers throughout the county. Their days for the Main Line:

September 26, 27, 28, 29 and 30 in the Township Building, Ardmore; and September 26 and 27 in the Borough Hall, Narberth.

Hours: 2.30 to 5 P. M. and 6 to 8.30 P. M., Daylight Saving Time.

Per new law, voters who have not registered since the Permanent Registration Act of 1937 must qualify now in order to exercise their franchise this fall.

In a statement from the Montgomery County Registration Commission, voters are warned that under this new law you can vote only if you are registered.

"Voters already registered who have changed their address since their registration may make application to the registrars to have present addresses placed upon the record," the commissioners said. "It is necessary, under the Permanent Registration Act, that voters keep their address records correct."

"At elections, voters whose registration cards do not bear the correct addresses must be refused ballots according to the new law.

"In addition to the schedule of registration days in Lower Merion Township, the main office in Norristown will be open daily between 8 A. M. and 4 P. M. except Saturdays, when the office closes at noon.

"Registration business may be transacted at the Court House until noon on October 8, the last day to register before the November 8 election."

Pictures for Players

The Narberth Players at their season's first meeting, 8.30 P. M., next Tuesday, in Elm Hall, will see moving pictures of their recent picnic at Valley Forge, filmed and prepared by George Werner and the Rev. R. E. Keighton. And plans will be made for the new season's repertoire of plays.

Marine Dining Room

Max Schoenberger has made extensive alterations in his Wynnewood house, Montgomery pike near Wynnewood road, installing a bar in the Crystal Room, which has been redecorated, and inaugurating a Marine Dining Room for the increasing clientele who come from afar to enjoy his famed cuisine.

Second Largest

Building Month This Year Was August.

March's total of permits issued in Lower Merion was $963,399 due to the junior high school in Cynwyd. August's, without benefit of a big structure, was $707,031. Bringing the year's total past the $3,500,000 mark an increase of $171,280 over last year's first eight months—the August permits totaled 154, of which 28 were for single family dwellings. Their cost is estimated at $374,500. So far this year 140 new homes have been built or authorized in the township, costing $1,879,835.

General Wayne district (Penn Valley and Merion Park) leads with $299,344 worth of work authorized by 23 permits for the month. South Ardmore is next with 29 permits totaling $100,308.

Fr. Strumia Dies

The Rev. Michael Strumia, 56, chaplain in the Italian Navy, died of a heart attack Sunday at Beach Haven, the summer home of his brother, Dr. Max Strumia, of Bryn Mawr avenue, Penn Valley. He was visiting Dr. Strumia, who is director of Bryn Mawr Hospital's lab, and another brother, the Rev. Victor Strumia, rector of a Conshohocken church. He is survived by them and his mother and sister in Italy. Funeral services are this morning and tomorrow the priest's body will go aboard the Rex for interment in Turin.

Sings Sunday

George D. Hernandez, well-known negro tenor, will present a program of sacred music, including negro spirituals, Sunday evening at 7.45 P. M. at the Narberth M. E. Church. Mr. Hernandez, in this return engagement in Narberth, is considered one of the finest interpreters of the music of his race. The public is cordially invited to attend, and all the seats are free.

Main Lines

Ersters 'r in season. September's here. Schools opening, vacationists returning, and soon the leaves burning. Tang of autumn in the air.

The Montgomery County Historical Society Wednesday sought support of county officials and other patriotic and historical associations to build a Valley Forge Memorial Highway from Valley Forge Park eastward to Independence Hall, and thence to Fort Washington. It would cross the Schuylkill over a new bridge to be built on the site of the Revolutionary Army's bridge at Valley Forge, and connect historic sites recalling the campaign of 1777. This is proposed as an alternative to straightening Old Gulph road or constructing a super parkway along the Schuylkill. For details of the latter, see Town and Township, next month.

Lower Merion is one of eight school districts in this county sharing $190,665.47, first semi-annual reimbursement due second and third class districts for teachers' salaries paid during the '37-'38 school year. The township's portion is $45,664.49.

Democrat? Republican? Or whatever. . . . Your chance to register for November's election is September 26-27 at Elm Hall, Narberth, September 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, Township Building, Ardmore.

Foreman of the Montgomery County Grand Jury which convened at Norristown Tuesday, is Mildred T. Thompson, 217 Avon road. Gertrude White, 637 Bowman avenue, is secretary of the jury, and other jurors from hereabouts are Mabel G. Baltz, Gladwyne, and Bertha Lee, Ardmore.

Henry—Connor

Dr. Charles M. Henry, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Henry, of 329 Meeting House lane, was married to Dr. Angie Connor, of Marshfield, Wis., at the home of Mr. John Van Ness Wednesday of last week.

Following the ceremony, which was performed by Dr. Van Ness, a family reception was held at the home of the groom's parents.

Dr. Henry is a graduate of Lower Merion High School, Haverford College and the University of Pennsylvania Medical School. He is a resident physician at the Philadelphia General Hospital.

Attends Clinic

Dr. F. Munro Purse, of Elmwood avenue, was called to Harrisbugr last week to attend the Osteopath Clinic, as consulting pediatrician. He gave a talk each evening to the attending doctors and examined 54 children and babies.

Narberth Bridge Club

Saturday's top scorers were the A. E. Shuberts; second, the Shermans. Tuesday's, the Shuberts again, with Arthur Cooney and guest Leedom in second place.

The new stone Colonial residence built by George F. Joly, Jr., on Indian Creek road at Wynnewood, has been sold to Joseph F. Lagerman, who will occupy it. The property was held for sale at $39,500. It is adjacent to the residences of the late W. Percy Simpson, Justice H. Edgar Barnes and Matthew H. McCloskey, Jr.

Woman's Guild

Members of the Narberth Presbyterian Church Please Note:

This month we go back to the individual circle meetings in the homes of various members, the third Thursday of the month. Study topic under discussion will be "America's Greatest Home Mission Field," a most interesting one. There will be no guild meeting this month. When in doubt, consult your year book.

Study Leaders for this month will be as follows: Circle No. 1, Mrs. Mason; Circle No. 2, Mrs. Irvine; Circle No. 3, Mrs. Martin; Circle No. 4, Mrs. Digby; Circle No. 5, Mrs. Wood; Circle No. 6, Mrs. Monroe; Circle No. 7, Mrs. Woll; Circle No. 8, Mrs. Hebsacker; Circle No. 9, Mrs. Black; Circle No. 10, Mrs. Wood; Circle No. 11, Mrs. Dunlap.

Attend your circle meeting if at all possible, so we can start the fall season off with a bang.

Republican Rally

October 13 at Sunnybrook Ballroom.

Staged by the Pottstown Republican Club, it will be "the greatest Republican dinner rally ever held in Montgomery County." Stalwarts from hereabouts are urged to make reservations early, and for their convenience, W. D. R. Evans will handle them. . . 205 Woodside avenue; phone Narberth 2328-W.

Eighteen hundred reservations are being made, to hear Judge Arthur H. James, Senator James J. Davis, many another.

Time Out

Week-end tennis attention was focussed on Manheim where the American team successfully defended its Davis Cup title, three matches to two. Dave Stout played the part of official observer for Berwyn on Sunday when he witnessed the doubles as the guest of Johnny DeWolf. Dave declared that newspaper accounts of the Australians' superiority that day were substantially correct as was the statement that they concentrated their attack upon Gene Mako, but that disparaging comments upon Mako's ability decidedly were unfounded and unjust. Gene, he said, was erratic as he invariably is, but for the most part played brilliant tennis and since Budge was considerably off his game, Mako was required to shoulder the majority of the burden himself. Bromwich, on the other hand, came in for unmitigated applause and was described as a really brilliant star, an opinion which was more than borne out by his performance throughout the entire series of matches.

That footfault business was most unfortunate. Similar rulings embarrassed the American team abroad some years ago and this year undoubtedly they seriously affected Quist's match with Budge on Labor Day. There can be no doubt as to their technical correctness, but either they should be called stringently in every instance or not at all. And right now is an excellent time to decide what shall be done in future encounters.

The Editorial

Touch is the Important Thing.

So said Charles H. (Bill) Sykes, of Cynwyd, whose cartoons enliven the Philadelphia Public Ledger's editorial page. Addressing the Bala-Cynwyd-Narberth Rotary Club Tuesday, he said newspapers often stray from their prime function—that of reporting the news impartially. Honest views and not colored opinions are what the readers should have, he said, pointing out that big business and chain publishers too often dominate editorial writers, hurting their self-respect and the public's confidence in their integrity.

A cartoonist for the Ledger for 27 years, he termed his "the oldest male profession" and said he had drawn over 10,000 cartoons. He gave demonstrations of his work, which he said is most popular when capitalizing on pet hates; after drawing a cartoon of Roosevelt, he said, "God bless Frank; I don't know what I'd do without him!"

He was introduced by his friend, Bill Decker, and bantered with him and Joe Skelton in the course of his talk.

Albert F. W. Vick, Jr., will give an illustrated talk on wild flowers next Tuesday, and it was announced that the annual county outing of Rotary Clubs will be Wednesday at Plymouth Country Club, with dinner at 6.15.

Doerschuk—Monks

The marriage of Miss Helen Monks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey W. Monks, 200 Grayling avenue, Narberth, to Mr. Ernest E. Doerschuk, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Doerschuk, Sugar Creek, Ohio, took place at four o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Narberth Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Erwin Britton, of Avon Lake, Ohio, officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a model of sheer white material over satin, trimmed with lace. The sleeves were close-fitting ending in points over the hands. Her gown had a high standing collar and a long train which extended from the skirt. She wore a three-quarter length veil of tulle fastened to a small cap. Her bouquet was of white roses, lilies-of-the-valley and gardenias.

Miss Alison Trenholme, maid of honor, wore a pale yellow frock of organza over a silk slip. A black ribbon encircled her waist. She carried a bouquet of talisman roses. The bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Myers, Miss Virginia Thompson, Miss Esther Lous Smith and Miss Evelyn Kirk, all wore models of organza, ranging in tones of pale pink and pale blue. They carried old-fashioned bouquets.

Mr. John Doerschuk acted as best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Paul Hastings, Mr. Frederick Bennett, Mr. Robert Evans and Mr. Charles Mears.

Accidents

Friday: Edward S. Haws vs. John P. Lauer, at Dudley and Price. And H. L. Taylor vs. Marion V. Costa, at Narberth and Windsor. No hurts reported.

Monday: John Lawson, Jr., at Bowman and Wynnewood, treated at Bryn Mawr Hospital. And Mrs. Harold Guckes, treated by Dr. Edward J. Gough.

St. David's 224th Anniversary Was Celebrated With Special Services

St. David's or Radnor Protestant Episcopal Church, having been erected in 1715, is one of the interesting historical landmarks in Pennsylvania. Situated in a little valley at the junction of three of the oldest townships—Radnor, Newtown and Easttown—its simple beauty has attracted thousands of visitors from this country and abroad.

Surrounded by ancestral graves, the tiny shrine today presents a picture of peace and contentment far removed from the hustle and bustle of twentieth century life. Longfellow expressed it in these words:

What an image of peace and rest
Is this little church among its graves!
All is so quiet; the troubles breast,
The wounded spirit, the heart oppressed,
Here may find the repose it craves.

Many interesting incidents are connected with the church. Once, a robbery related by the American Weekly Mercury, of Philadelphia, under date of July 12, 1742, is unique in that it gives some idea of old Colonial church furnishings:

"Some time last week the church in Radnor Township, Chester County, was broke open and a chest therein which was bound round with iron hoops was also broke open and the following goods stolen out of same, viz: One large folio Bible almost new with cuts and the Arms of the Honorable Society in it and writing in several places, one quarto Bible almost new, one black gown made of fine Spanish cloth, one chalice, two plates and one Bason being stamped Radnor Church. Whosoever will apprehend and secure the felons so that they may be brought to justice shall receive five pounds as a reward from the minister and wardens of the said church."

Another Narberth Rooter Speaks A Piece for the "National" Players

Dear Tom:

I have been watching with interest your articles about the lack of Narberth boys on the borough team. I happen to be a member of the Nationals and know the abilities of the local boys.

We have three or four on the Nationals who, given a fair trial, might give Narberth's regulars a run for their jobs. For instance, Tom Donahue has developed into a pretty fair shortstop. He has lapses occasionally, but with proper guidance will get over them. John Gallagher is a good fielding third baseman and along with Bud Kinucan, an outfielder, is improving as a hitter. Mike McGarry and Dave Stroup are also good ball players. Our pitching staff, consisting of John (Admiral) Miller, Wes Goss and Bob Odiorne, could get along very well with the support and coaching of the Narberth staff.

I have played with the three borough boys now active in the Main Line League and believe they could give good accounts of themselves in Narberth uniforms. You probably recall that they are Howard (ock) Smith, Harvey Cook and Harold Powell. Ock Smith has developed into one of the hardest hitters in the league and would be a help to the borough nine.

In regards to the game in which the Nationals beat the "big" club, I wish to say that the young players have not been bragging or belittling the older team, but feel that they showed enough talent to be given consideration with the Narberth Club next season. The Nationals are behind Narberth to a man and want to see them win the coming playoffs.

Yours in support of a "Narberth" team.

Room for Optimism

The United States contains 6 per cent of the world's area; 7 per cent of the world's population. It normally consumes:

48 per cent of the world's coffee.
53 per cent of the world's tin.
56 per cent of the world's rubber.
21 per cent of the world's sugar.
72 per cent of the world's silk.
36 per cent of the world's coal.
42 per cent of the world's pig iron
47 per cent of the world's copper.
69 per cent of the world's crude petroleum.

The United States operates 60 per cent of the world's telephone and telegraph facilities; owns 80 per cent of the motorcars in use; operates 33 per cent of the rail roads. It produces:

70 per cent of the world's oil.
60 per cent of the world's wheat.
60 per cent of the world's cotton
50 per cent of the world's copper.
50 per cent of the world's pig iron.
40 per cent of the world's lead
40 per cent of the world's coal.

The United States possesses almost eleven billions of dollars in gold, nearly one half of the world's monetary metal. It has two-thirds of civilization's banking facilities. The purchasing power of the population is greater than that of the 500,000,000 people in Europe and much larger than that of the more than a billion Asiatic peoples.

ZOOK—SCATTERGOOD

Miss Ellen Morris Scattergood, daughter, of Mr. J. Henry Scattergood, of Dundale, Villanova, was married to Mr. W. H. Dunwoody Zook, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Townsend Zook, of Merion, at five o'clock Saturday, by Friends' ceremony, at Chocorna Island, Squam Lake, N. H.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown of cream ivory tone charmeuse satin, fashioned with a tight-fitting bodice and long sleeves puffed to the elbow. The neckline was round with insets of lace edging with orange blossoms, and the full skirt had a slight train. Her veil of old family lace in cream ivory tone fell from a wreath of orange blossoms and her old-fashioned bouquet was of gardenias and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Robert F. Norris was her sister's maid of honor and only attendant.

Mr. Standish Forde Hansell acted as best man for the bridegroom.

A reception followed the ceremony at the summer home of the bride's father.

On return from their wedding trip Mr. Zook and his bride will be at home at Overbrook Court after October 1.

He Stopped Advertising

Once there was a business man,
And he was wondrous wise;
Said he:
"We'll save the money it takes to advertise.
We've got the business going,
We'll sit and take the kale:
Why squander cash for printing?
Our income cannot fail."

Things prospered for a season,
And prospects rosy grew;
Then sales began to dwindle;
The why?—Nobody knew.
The boss was fretful, worried,
His face grew pale and drawn,
The business "kept on going"—
—Going—now it's gone.—

The Hands that Speed Your Voice

Throughout Pennsylvania, 5,806 pairs of hands are at work at Bell switchboards.

Day and night, their flying fingers flash through the motions that link the voice-ways of the nation, so that you can talk easily and quickly to almost anyone . . . anywhere.

They are trained hands—the hands of women who know their work and like it; who are eager and able to serve you well.

Behind those hands are cool heads and warm hearts—the kind of people you can depend on for swift aid in emergencies and steady, thoughtful performance of their everyday jobs.

Lead Pencils Contain No Lead

Contrary to popular belief, there is no lead in lead pencils. Graphite and clay are materials used, but no lead, according to information obtained from the Rockefeller Center offices of the American Pencil Company. No doubt the name "lead pencil" arose from the fact that before graphite, lead was used for writing.

CELEBRATE 224TH BIRTHDAY

Quaint Old St. David's Church

224th Anniversary Of St. David's Church

During the Revolution, it is said, months often passed without any religious services being held in the church. At various times both American and British soldiers made it their headquarters. During the encampment of the Americans in Radnor Township all the leaden sashe then supporting the small diamond-shaped panes of clear glass in the church are said to have been cut out and molded into bullets. A silver Communion set presented by Queen Anne to the church also is said to have disappeared at this time.

Tradition also relates that in a thick grove of cedars occupying the site of the old parsonage, Major General Gray marshalled some of his troops before his murderous attack on Wayne's Division at Paoli on the night of September 20, 1777.

A more probable story states that sixteen unknown victims of the Battle of the Brandywine, who had died at nearby farm houses, were buried in the little hollow west of the church gallery steps.

Old St. David's Church

To the Editor:

On a recent visit to Philadelphia it was my privilege to visit Old Saint David's Church and the enclosed poem is the result of the inspiration which I received:

Here is the peace for heart and mind
Of which we dream,
A quiet place where we can find
The God Supreme;
A Sanctuary made to keep
The memories found
Wherever noble Patriots sleep
In Holy Ground.

Here in the tranquil hour of prayer
From Heaven descends
A benediction rich and rare
As twilight lends;
And voices from the Long Ago
Bid us anew
"Seek Liberty and Truth to know
And prize them too."

Such are the virtues that entwine
From year to year
The stones of this most Sacred Shrine.
So loved and dear;
And neither time nor change can blight,
Or make us lose
These symbols of our Nation's might,
Unless we choose.

If one can walk these aisles and feel
No thanks today,
Then may he humbly stoop to kneel
And thus to pray,
"Forgive ingratitude so low
And help me see
This Worthy Heritage I owe,
Dear Lord, to Thee."

ALETTA BESSOR.
